

McAllister House Welcome Center Contribution Form

Constructed around 1850 by one of our County's founding pioneers, Hiram McAllister, the McAllister Farmhouse was move to Pinecrest Historical Village in 1998. With a solid exterior, the interior of the building requires extensive restoration. Additional expenses such as utility hookup, building furnishings, landscaping, and exhibits will require the support of our members and community. You are invited to join our efforts to transform this historic home into a facility that will honor its history yet help Pinecrest Historical Village move into the future as a first rate outdoor museum. Please complete the form below and return it with your gift to the Manitowoc County Historical Society.
